

2017 Arthur L. Kelly Faculty Prize

for Exceptional Service in the Physical Sciences Division

Michael Stein

Ralph and Mary Otis Isham Professor Department of Statistics
University of Chicago

Michael Stein, the Ralph and Mary Otis Isham Professor in the Department of Statistics, is a past Chair of the Statistics Department. He has been serving as Master of the Physical Sciences Collegiate Division and Associate Dean of the Division since July of 2012. Throughout his years on the faculty, Mike has also given of himself by serving on several committees. He has a distinguished record as a statistician. His research has been in the area of spatial statistics and its applications to environmental sciences and astrophysics.