Position Title: William H. Kruskal Instructor

Req # 02361

The Department of Statistics at the University of Chicago invites applications for the William H. Kruskal Instructor. We seek recent or expected Ph.D. graduates doing advanced research with a connection to statistical methodology and computation, preferably in relation with a scientific application. It is expected that all successful applicants will engage in teaching two undergraduate Statistics courses and possibly a graduate-level course in their field of interest. The position is for two years, with the possibility of a renewal.

While not all applicants need be specifically trained in statistics, they must have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. at the time of appointment in statistics or some field of mathematics or science where statistical concepts or methods play an important role. A demonstrated research excellence is essential, and research interests related to those of faculty in the Department of Statistics (www.stat.uchicago.edu/people/faculty) or other faculty involved in the Computational and Applied Mathematics Initiative (www.stat.uchicago.edu/cami) is preferred.

Applicants must apply online at the University of Chicago Academic Jobs website at http://tinyurl.com/k87zgx. To be considered an applicant, a cover letter, CV, and three letters of reference will be required. Referral letter submission information will be provided during the application process. Optionally, a teaching and/or research statement and up to three relevant research publications may also be uploaded or sent to the Search Committee. Application screening will begin November 15, 2014, and will continue until all positions are filled or the search is closed.

Further inquiry and optional documents may be sent to the Search Committee at search@galton.uchicago.edu or to Search Committee, Department of Statistics, Eckhart 108, University of Chicago, 5734 S. University Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, protected veteran status or status as an individual with disability.

The University of Chicago is an Affirmative Action / Equal Opportunity / Disabled / Veterans Employer.
